F major,

Verse 1

^F Little Bo Peep has ^Clost her sheep
^F And doesn't know whe-re ^Cto find them
^F Leave them alone, And ^Cthey-'ll come home
^F Wag-ging the-ir ^Ctails behind them ^{FCF}
Verse 2

^F Little Bo-Peep fell ^Cfast asleep,
^F And dreamt she heard them ^Cbleating;
^F But when she awoke, she ^Cfound it a joke,
^F For they were still ^Call flee-ting ^{FCF} .

Verse 3

^F Then up she took ^Cher little crook,
^F De-ter-mined for to fi-nd ^Cthem;

^F She found them in-deed, ^Cbut it made her heart bleed,
^F For they'd left their ^Ctails behind them ^F ^{FCF} .

Verse 4

^F It happ-ened one day, as ^CBo-Peep did stray
^F In-to a me-a-dow hard ^Cby,
^F There she es-pied ^Ctheir tails, side by side,
^F All hung on a tree ^Cto dry. ^F ^{FCF}
Verse 5

^F (She) heaved a sigh ^C(and) wi-ped her eye,
^F (And) o-ver the hill-ocks she ^Craced;
^F (And) tried what she could, ^C(as a) she-pher-dess should,
^F That each tail be ^Cproperly placed. ^F ^{FCF}
